

Go out for ice cream.

Read a good book.

Fly a kite.

Make a bucket list.

Go on a bike ride.

Make a treasure map and go on a hunt.

Write & illustrate your own story.

Go bowling.

Go on a hike.

Play miniature golf.

Play charades.

Make rice krispie treats.

Have a picnic.

Try a new recipe.

Visit a national park.

Roast marshmallows.

Go swimming.

Tie-dye some t-shirts.

Have a paper airplane contest.

Plant something.

Go to a museum.

Go to a Farmer's Market.

Learn a new game.

Keep a summer journal.

Go to a ball game.

Nap in a hammock. (Hammock Day is July 22!)

Compare a book to a movie.

Play hide and seek.

Watch a drive-in movie.

Visit a planetarium.

Paint your own pottery.

Take a class. Learn something new.

Have a tea party.

Go on a road trip.

Cloud gaze.

Read the Declaration of Independence on July 4.

Go to a parade.

Perform a random act of kindness.

Write a letter to a friend.

Take a self portrait.

Tour a local business.

Have a movie marathon.

Visit the zoo.

Hold your own backyard Olympics.

Learn to hula hoop.